

John O'Brien's Favorite Quotes

- “Men occasionally stumble over the truth, however, most pick themselves up and hurry off as if nothing had happened.” Winston Churchill
- “If we could apply a force equal to that of our human nature’s resistance to change – there would be nothing we would not accomplish.” Unknown
- “Most people believe they are thinking when in fact all they are doing is re arranging their prejudices.” Eleanor Roosevelt
- “Consumers love to be dazzled with incomprehensible and meaningless scientific jargon.” A writer for The Australian Newspaper
- “People don’t change when they are shown the light they only change when they feel the heat.” Unknown
- “People are easier to deceive than enlighten.” Unknown
- “Everyone is making money out of the modern dairy cow except the dairy farmer.” Jerry Brunetti
- “Whenever you find you are on the side of the majority, it is time to pause and reflect.” Mark Twain
- “Doing what you have always done and expecting a different result is the definition of insanity.” Albert Einstein
- “Denial is not a river in Egypt.” Jennifer Hoffman
- “You will not find the good cattle behind the white painted fences.” Kevin Battersby